Andreas Klamm – Sabaot (born February 6, 1968) in Ludwigshafen am Rhein (Germany), known also as Andreas Klamm, Andrew. P. (Pilgrim) Harrod, Uli Setz, Andrew Suhr, Andreas Suhr, Andre Sabaot, Andrew Wellington, Tobias Schlüfkes (used artist names and pseudonyms) is a French-German broadcast journalist, journalist, author, news correspondent, reporter, editor, independent television ,radio and film producer since 1986. Since 1986 Andreas Klamm – Sabaot is registered as publisher of the news and travel magazine British Newsflash Magazine, since 2006 he is the publisher of Liberty and Peace Now ! Human Rights Reporters and he became the co-founder and publisher of MJB Mission News, ISSN 1999-8414 in 2008.

He was a former student in nursing management in 2003 and 2004 with the Protestant University of Applied Science for social and public healthcare in Ludwigshafen am Rhein in Germany. He has not continued to study because of special circumstances which have taken the chances to study. He got in need. He is also of the founder of several international alternative associations, of three companies in Germany and in the United Kingdom and of two international magazines. In 1986 he has founded British Newsflash Magazine est. 1986 and in 2008 he has founded in association with Reverend Yawovi Nyonata the international mission news magazine MJB Mission NEWS, ISSN 1999-8414, in TOGO, West-Africa.

In 1986 he has founded Independent Broadcasting Service Liberty (IBS), Radio IBS Liberty and IBS Television Liberty which is also known as Radio IBS Liberty and IBS Television Libertyin the city of Leeds, West Yorkshire, England, United Kingdom and in the city of Speyer am Rhein, Rheinland-Pfalz in Germany. He is also an investigative journalist and did after the arrest of the "Junge Welt" (daily newspaper) correspondent and journalist, Mrs. Heike Schrader, which got arrested in in 2007 at the airport Cologne - Bonn in Germany under the suspicion of terrorism after she has published a book about torture in Europe, a lot of research on the issues of international terrorism, torture and war. Since 1984 he is working both for commercial mass media, referred as main stream media and international alternative media. Some of radio and television programs have been also broadcast in the United States of America. His essay and special coverage about the arrest of the journalist and news correspondent Mrs. Heike Schrader has been nationwide recognized and published in many different media throughout the country of Germany.

He filed for conscientious objector status, which was denied by German Military authorities. After he has written to the German military council in the German city of Neustadt (Germany) a petition in 1989 / 1990 that he wants not to participate any kind of war for Germany, he is officially known and filed as a peace activist. For speaking out his opinion about the German military while being in service as a soldier and journalist he has got almost arrested by the German Military Police in 1989. First after some negotiations „peace talks“ with soldiers he was free to go. These incidents have been filed in the military records of the former soldier which is writing and publishing articles as a journalist since 1984. In 1989 he was associated in the city of Germersheim (Germany) with the Student Mission Germany as known as Studenten Mission Deutschland (SMD).

He has stated: "I do know that war is clearly wrong." in 1989 caused by faith. In the petition to the military council which he has written after he has completed the entire forced service 15 months labor as a soldier in the German Air Force the journalist has made the statement that for reason of conscience, religion, belief and faith he wants not to participate any kind of war for the country of Germany.

The military council has refused to grant peace and therefore the journalist could be forced to participate a war for Germany against his will. However the journalist still refuses to participate any kind of war for the country of Germany.

After the bombing by air strike in Northern Afghanistan on September 4, 2009 ordered by the GERMAN BUNDESWEHR (military) which caused many children and teenagers to die, Andreas Klamm Sabaot has written to the German State Prosecutor in the city of Berlin in Germany and filed a second time for conscientious objector status in December 2009.

On January 12, 2009 the Federal Government of Germany has accepted the conscientious objector status of the French-German journalist Andreas Klamm Sabaot, which has been issued by the Bundesamt fuer den Zivildienst (Federal Office for civil public service) in the city of Cologne in Germany.

Since October 2006 the journalist and editor has published about 8.000 articles in the German and English language. Hundreds of articles which he has written have been published in regional newspapers such as Tagespost (Daily Mail) and Morgenpost (Morning Post) in Speyer am Rhein and in other national and international papers. He has participated several times with the JVC Tokyo Video Film Festival and has produced several television productions in New York City, United States of America. His first film production "Bad Bergzabern - Kurstadt mit Herz" a documentary about a city in Germany got recognized in 1986 in the papers. After his TV documentary "November 9, 1938 and today" has been aired on public television he and some of his co-producers have received threats including death threats. Since 1988 he is also engaged in the human rights movement and known as social activist. He has produced radio programs and television programs about refugees in 1988 and several times about torture. He is taking a public stand against the death penalty and has signed dozens petitions and has produced also television and radio programs about people facing the death penalty. He is also writing articles in co-operation with Jewish writers about the history of Germany.

In 2008 he became a member of the group „Human Rights Leaders for OBAMA“. The author and journalist is an active supporter of the grass root movement for refugees campaign called „Save Me Heidelberg“ in the city of Heidelberg, Germany', <http://www.save-me-heidelberg.de/patinnen-paten.12.html> which stands for „Save ME Heidelberg Campaign - people for refugees, UN program / Pro Asyl, in association with the association Pro Asyl. In June 2007 he has been in Germany working as a broadcast journalist and news correspondent and covered stories about the G8 summit in Heiligendamm, Germany as one of about 4.700 accredited journalists. During the G8 summit he has taken about 1.400 photographs. In January 2008 he became the director of the branch for the United Kingdom branch and the branch for German of the international JEWISH-CHRISTIAN John Baptist Mission of Togo, which has been founded in 2004.

Multicultural and international background

The journalist and author is a Black-White, African-Caucasian (europid) descendant of a French citizen and former French Army officer, Lieutenant, Mr. Haedi Sabaot, which has been stationed in 1945 in Germany. The former French Army Lieutenant is missing since 1945. Haedi Sabaot is born in the capital city of TUNIS in the country of TUNESIA and AFRICAN. Haedi Sabaot was a Lieutenant of the „Cuirassier Du 5ème Régiment“ of the FRENCH MILITARY. His grandmother, Mrs. Martha MAIER - Kolacz has left for political reasons and because of persecution by people which have been still influenced with the Nazi doctrine in 1950 Germany for ever and has changed her citizenship from the German citizenship into the Australian citizenship. Martha Maier – KOLACZ used to live in the city of MELBOURNE, State of Victoria, AUSTRALIA before she passed away.

She later has married Joseph Kolacz in Australia. Since 1984 Andreas Klamm – Sabaot is involved in an investigative search for his own grandfather, the former French Army Lieutenant, Mr. Haedi Sabaot. About four years ago he was able to find the son of a close friend to his grandfather which was also a French Army Officer. The search for his grandfather is still ongoing. His grandfather disappeared in 1945 after World War II. In 1950 Mrs. Martha Kolacz which has been in love and friendship with the French Army Lieutenant Mr. Haedi Sabaot became in the city of Melbourne, in the state of Victoria an Australian citizen and has married in Australia another man, Mr. Joseph Kolacz from Poland, a former Security Police Officer (SP) which was working for the Polish Division Poland of the U.S. Armed Forces in Europe in 1945. Because of his multicultural family background he is in many times "...not thinking as a German citizen but as an international citizen or as an citizen of this world...", he stated many times even on his radio and television programs. His father, Manfred Klamm (born on April 10, 1944) a former fire fighter has passed away on February 4, 2000 after a car accident. His mother used to work in the medical field and for a federal Government institution in Germany. He has one older and one younger sister.

Since 1984 he is traveling to other countries, such as Belgium, France, Spain, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, England, United Kingdom and the United States of America and seeking co-operation for the radio and television productions with people from many different countries. Andreas Klamm - Sabaot is able to speak and write the German and English language. Besides these language skills he has taken courses in French, Greek and Latin. Since 2006 he lives and works both in London, United Kingdom and in Germany and is working in the United Kingdom, France, Germany and Sweden. He has published books in different countries such as France and Germany. He is calling New York City in the United States of America his „home, the city in which his friends do live“, the second choice as home he describes is London (United Kingdom), the third choice Paris (France) and in Germany he likes the city of Berlin.

"We have to live together. If anyone is going his own way it will be soon too late..., Human Rights are valid for all people! No chance for the Nazi terror. In memory of the victims of the Nazi terror from 1933 and 1945 and in memory for those which have got killed because of the Nazi Terror after 1945. 1948 - 2008, 60th anniversary of the declaration of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in 1948 by the United Nations." 3mnewswire.org
Investigative journalism career

Career as journalist, author, broadcasting host, founder of independent media, news correspondent, reporter

A very short and brief description of some works. When he was a teenager Andreas Klamm – Sabaot has started after participating some couple of weeks with a basic and practical training of journalism with the editorial offices of the regional newspaper "Rheinpfalz" in Ludwigshafen am Rhein to work as journalist. His basic skills and knowledge about journalism he has received from the female journalist Christina Osterwald, which was working for the newspaper "Rheinpfalz" in the German city of Ludwigshafen am Rhein. He has participated a course for broadcast journalists held by journalist Ulrich Wickert (ARD, Tagesthemen). The journalist is influenced by several great and precious journalists. He has made the public statement that Amy Goodman from Democracy Now! (www.democracynow.org) New York City, Ulrich Wickert from the ARD (German Television) - Tagesthemen, the journalist Peter Hahne from Zweites Deutsches Fernsehen (ZDF, German Television), the author of many books Prof. Dr. Werner Gitt and the author Christiane Philipp are some of his favorite journalists and authors.

He wrote an essay about the German governor Bernhard Vogel and got his first interview with the former governor of two states in Germany when he was 16 years of age and got another interview with Dr. Bernhard Vogel 20 years later. In 1990 he had the chance for an interview for a paper in the city of Mannheim with musician Robin Beck (from New York City, U.S.A.) which is known for her famous song "The very first time". In 2005 he has produced an interview with the politician Jürgen Trittin and has documented the incident caused by German Neo-Nazis after a public speech of the politician. Since 1984 he has produced hundreds of interviews with well known people for radio and television programs and since 1990 he is also producing interviews with homeless people. After he has published the reports about people which have been in the danger of starving to death he has founded the media project Regionalhilfe.de, in the English language Regional Aid, which is dedicated to the poor people to find relief and help.

IBS Independent Broadcasting Service Liberty, Radio IBS Liberty, IBS Television Liberty are independent and international media which are working international, inter-cultural, inter-religious and are operating not for profit, meaning in the sense of not commercial and are supporting international understanding since 1986.

The television and radio productions have been supported by journalists, reporters, television and radio producers from the around the world, such as journalists and co-producers form the United States of America, the United Kingdom, England, Scotland, Wales, Ireland, France, Spain, Brazil, Portugal, Paraguay and even journalists from the country of Iraq. In 1986 the journalist and author Andreas Klamm - Sabaot became the founder of British Newsflash Magazine, which could be best described as independent news and travel magazine and got listed not only in many search engines but in the national directory for periodicals the STAMM-Verlags-Verzeichnis, in Essen (listing of periodicals, international). British Newsflash Magazine is published monthly and available as PDF magazine and is providing several online editions on the internet.

Already when he was 16 years of age he has produced a lot of interviews with famous regional and even national politicians, such as Theo Magin, which used to be a member of the German Parliament. In the age of 18 he produced an interview with the intendant and director of the German public TV and radio station, Prof. Dr. Hubert Rhode. Andreas Klamm – Sabaot has received with his television production "Hier ist Radio 94, 2 - das Stadtradio Saarbrücken" (Here is radio 94,2 the city station ...) an award by the state film department and department of the state for political education of the state of Rhineland-Palatinate in Germany. He has received other awards already in the years of 1986, 1987, 1988 and 1989.

The money associated with the awards and honors, Andreas Klamm - Sabaot has used to produce even more television and radio productions and for the foundation of IBS Independent Broadcasting Service Liberty. 1988-1989: While being on forced duty for 15 months as a soldier with the German Air Force (German Military service) Andreas Klamm has covered a news story about the Germany military as soldier in uniform with the radio station Radio RPR in Germany which is a well known commercial radio station. He had to ask a leading commander for permission to produce the radio program. Because he has been forced to become a soldier he had to ask Lieutenant Colonel Berent Koven for permission to cover a story on radio while being as soldier in uniform. 1990: After his forced military service Andreas Klamm, took a course in journalism and has been working for a commercial radio station in the German city of Heilbronn as known as Stadtradio Heilbronn, besides his other engagements with IBS Independent Broadcasting Service Liberty. In the German city of Mannheim he became in 1990 an editor working for the weekly periodical "Wochenblatt" Mannheim. From 1996 to 1997 he was a member of the political party CDU, as known as the Christliche Demokratische Union Deutschlands (Christian Democratic Union) in the German city of Ludwigshafen. For political reason he has quit his membership with the CDU in Germany. In 1996 the journalist has founded a small commercial business which has been providing all kind of photos, news and information about horses and horse back riding. The small business has been known as Horse Rider Media Data (HRM NEWS) and went out of business because of missing customers which have been able or willing to pay for the services which have been provided. He was working also for the well known news wire service ddp Deutscher Depeschen Dienst in Germany and has been covering news reports about the minister for defense in Germany, Dr. Peter Struck in the city of Speyer am Rhein in Germany. Andreas Klamm – Sabaot is working also for the news wire service onpra.de and other independent and commercial media on the internet, radio and television.

In 2001 and 2002 he has been traveling two times to the United States of America and gathering news and information and has published reports on radio, television and on the internet about the events related to the terror attacks on September 11, 2001.

He became also a volunteer with the American Red Cross (ARC) and with All Nations Baptist Church in New York City. In the streets of New York City in action of faith and belief he has passed out in person gospel tracts to about 5.000 people. The Gospel tract has been called "The Gospel of Jesus Christ to the people of New York City". He has attended as a guest in 2002 in New York with the Queens College a course for Modern Jewish History and music. After his flight in 2006 to London surprisingly got canceled because of a possible terror plot he has produced interviews with the airport authorities and passengers about the possible terror plot at the airport for a television news cast while waiting for his flight to the city of London in the United Kingdom. Some of his very best friends, which he stated during public speeches and on radio and television do live in the greatest city that never sleeps and which is known as New York City in the United States of America (U.S.A.). He got in close contact with the Jewish community also and calls some people of the Jewish community his very special friends. In 2003 and 2004 he has been a student in nursing management with the Protestant University of Applied Science for social welfare and health care in the German city of Ludwigshafen am Rhein.

As only a „secondary profession“ in 1993 he became after a training of three years also a registered nurse (R.N., RGN) and was working as a nurse both in the United Kingdom and in Germany. He was working also as an ITU nurse in London with the Clementine Churchill Hospital and with well known university hospitals in Germany. Even while working as a nurse (R.N., RGN) registered with the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC, www.nmc-uk.org) in London he continued to write articles for newspapers and has continued to produce radio and television programs. He used to work 18 hours per single day. After several seriously dangerous accidents in 1994, 1995, 1996 he had to reduce because of health related physical difficulties his daily work scheme. In London 2006 he has reduced his daily work load to "only 16 hours" work during a day. In 2007 he has covered as a journalist, news correspondent, broadcasting host of 3mnewswire.org, radio and television producer the G8 summit in Heiligendamm in Germany from the inside perspective taking thousands of photographs from the healthy and rich people and of the people which are called "rulers of the world..." .

The security guards of the G8 summit in Heiligendamm, Germany became witnesses that Andreas Klamm – Sabat has been producing television programs at 2.00 am in the morning because "...all of us have been quite busy,...there was no other chance than even to produce interviews at 2.00 a.m. in the morning..." His articles for news papers, online magazines and productions for radio and television often are about culture, international affairs, society, health care, political, religious, Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Buddhist, faith, believe affairs. He is writing about politics, international understanding, human rights, international issues, culture, medical issues and society. From September 2006 to February 2009 he has produced and published 551 television productions in the English and German language. In December 2008 he has produced in Stockholm in Sweden several television productions about the Right Livelihood Award which is known as the Alternative Nobel Prize and about the journalist Amy Goodman from Democracy Now! (an independent television and radio news hour, www.democracynow.org) which is the first journalist which has received the Right Livelihood Award with her sister laureates Dr. Monika Hauser (Swiss-Italian, founder of Medica Mondiale, Germany), Asha Haji Elmi (a female politician from Somali), Krishnammal Jagannathan, which is referred with her husband Sankaralingam Jagannathan as the "Soul of India". The journalist, broadcast journalist and author Andreas Klamm – Sabat is a member of national and international journalist and press organizations such as the IFJ International Federation of Journalists (IFJ, <http://www.ifj.org>) and other associations. Although the journalist, broadcast journalist and author sometimes is working even day and night he became not rich. He is quite poor and seriously diseased with diseases which could lead to death.

Official request for change of citizenship

In October 2007 the journalist Andreas Klamm has requested with the U.S. Department for Justice in Washington, D.C., United States of America and former U.S. President George Walker Bush the change of citizenship according to article 15 of the UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS, proclaimed in 1945 in New York City in the United States of America (U.S.A.) by the United Nations. . He desires to become an U.S. citizen. In November 2009 he has renewed his request for change of citizenship with the 44th President of the United States of America (U.S.A.), Barack H. Obama in Washington, D.C. May as an alternative to the U.S. citizenship he has requested also to receive the British citizenship.
